ERNST & YOUNG No.6

Andreas Demetriou is Managing Director of Ernst & Young

Andreas Demetriou: Ernst & Young is committed to playing its part in building a better working world. As accountants and auditors we contribute to the functioning of capital markets, providing transparent financial information to investors and other stakeholders. Through our business advisory services we help our clients to improve and grow and to create jobs, leading to higher living standards. We develop people who have successful careers at EY and go on to other roles in industry, government and academia. Finally, we help the communities where we live and work develop and prosper. Over the past year Cyprus has faced exceptional challenges to restore the viability of the financial sector and sound public finances. Despite the issues with the local economy, the favourable environment for international business companies remains: The tax regime is very competitive, the professional services are world class and Cyprus is a great place to live and work in.
